

U. S. DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE Commodity Credit Corporation

Agreement No.: _____

AMENDMENT 1 TO THE UPLAND COTTON
DOMESTIC USER/EXPORTER AGREEMENT

THIS AMENDMENT, made and entered into by and between Commodity Credit Corporation, a corporate agency of the United States ("CCC"), and _____ is incorporated into and made part of CCC-1045, Revision 6 dated October 22, 1999. The following changes amend the original language to the Agreement, and will be effective for the payment week beginning May 5, 2000.

(Name of Domestic User or Exporter)

Section A-4. Payment Rate is amended by revising paragraph (b) to read as follows:

- (b) The payment rate for loose, eligible reginned motes and eligible semi-processed motes will be:
- (1) for loose, 100 percent of the applicable payment rate;
 - (2) for eligible reginned motes which have been rebaled, 100 percent of the applicable payment rate;
 - (3) for eligible reginned motes processed by an end user who converted such motes, without rebaling, to an end use in a continuous manufacturing process, 100 percent of the applicable payment rate; and
 - (4) for eligible semi-processed motes, 25 percent of the applicable payment rate.

Section B-5. Weekly Consumption / Application for Payment Report is amended by revising the note in (b)(6) to read as follows:

- (b) (6) Payment Rate - When there is a payment rate in effect, show the announced payment rate for specified dates. A zero payment rate must be shown as "0".

NOTE: The payment rate is multiplied by net pounds and further multiplied by 25 percent for eligible semi-processed notes when computing the payment amount.
